Guernsey Cricket Board
GCB and Marlborough announce details of Inter Insular Trophy
10 August 2010

The Guernsey Cricket Board are pleased to announce the details of the new tie up with Marlborough for the annual Senior Inter Insular.

The deal initially for 2010 but, it's renewal terms to be agreed will see Guernsey and Jersey now play for the newly titled 'Marlborough Inter Insular Trophy' at Grainville on Saturday 21st August.

Marlborough had in previous seasons been sponsors to ORs in the Weekend and CI League and this season have backed Irregulars so are no strangers to local cricket.

The deal which is co-written with the support of the Jersey Cricket Board will see both Islands benefit equally.

GCB CEO Mark Latter said, "we are delighted to be working with Marlborough as main sponsor for the Inter Insular. As one of the oldest titles in the calendar it is great to be seeing one of cricket's newest partners keen to be associated with what is still one of the key matches in both Islands' fixture list."

Adrian Howe from Marlborough said, "<<ADD QUOTE>>"

The GCB as in previous years are organising travel across to Grainville via Condor Ferries who have once again offered a discount offer.

Fans wishing to travel should advise Mark Latter by email (mark@guernseycricket.com) by close Monday 16th to ensure they get a seat on the ferry and coach.

Boat times are scheduled as 0900 out and 2035 return.
