Press Release
Guernsey Cricket Board
Guernsey Squad announced for ICC Europe Division 2 Championship
18 June 2010

After much deliberation the Guernsey Senior Squad has been selected for the upcoming ICC European Division 2 Championship to be held in Guernsey from 13 to 19 July.

The Squad was assembled by the Selection Committee comprising of David Hearse (Chairman), Andrew Cornford (National Coach) and Stuart Le Prevost (Captain). The Squad in full is;

Stuart Le Prevost (Captain)

Jeremy Frith

Lee Savident

Ross Kneller

Tom Kimber

Andrew Hutchinson

Blane Queripel

Jonny Warr

Will Peatfield

Gary Rich

Jamie Nussbaumer

Stuart Bisson

Tim Ravenscroft

Ben Ferbrache

The Squad sees the return of Tim Ravenscroft who, along with Andrew Hutchinson and Will Peatfield as first time Senior Squad picks provides a few younger faces around the camp. All three have been showing well in domestic cricket and have thus made their selection all the easier.

National Coach, Andrew Cornford said; “the Squad has a nice blend of experience and youth and it will be good to see how they gel as a unit in a tournament atmosphere. This will give us a good lead as to who should then make the trip to ICC WCL6 next year.”

This year the GCB is also pleased to announce that it will also be receiving support from the Guernsey Sports Commission to ensure that Guernsey is able to provide a proper welcome to our visiting countries. This will culminate in their hosting of the Awards Dinner at St Pierre Park on the final game day evening.

The countries are all staying at St Pierre Park and once again the GCB has been pleased to work with Nicola Pell and the team their who have been superb in what is a logistical feat to look after some 100 plus guests.
