

Privacy Notice

PLEASE NOTE: The Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017 requires us to provide certain information to you. We provide this via our Privacy Statement below. This applies to all personal data collected by Guernsey Cricket (except for that relating to recruitment).

WHO ARE WE?

Guernsey Cricket Board (GCB) is the body that has sole control of all 'things' cricket in the Bailiwick (Alderney, Guernsey, Herm and Sark) having been formed to oversee the process that saw Guernsey become an Associate member of the International Cricket Council in 2008.

Prior to the creation of the GCB, cricket was administered on the island by the Guernsey Cricket Association (GCA), which was formed in 1927

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER (DPO)

The Data Protection Officer for Guernsey Cricket is Mark Latter, who can be contacted by email (mark@guernseycricket.com), telephone (+44 1481 257332) or in writing (GCB Office, KGV Playing Fields, Rue Cohu, Castel, GY5 7SZ).

WHEN PERSONAL DATA IS COLLECTED

Personal data is collected;

when enquiries are submitted via the Contact Us section of the website or by letter;

as part of the League and Cups Registration process by Clubs;

when emails are sent to the staff members' email addresses;

as part of the sign-up process for our tours, courses and activities;

as part of registering to attend one of our events;

in some cases as a result of enquiries made by phone or in person.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Data collected as part of an enquiry, the registration process for tours, courses and activities (*);

All personal data (in this instance to include some or all of: your name, address, passport details, mobile number and email address only) collected for this purpose is processed under paragraph 1 (The data subject has requested or given consent to the processing of the personal data for the purpose for which it is processed) of Schedule 2, Part II of the Law.

We may record information in our customer relationship management system if the information relates to a complaint, notification or other matter of significance.

YOUR RIGHTS

The Law provides you with a number of specific rights.

If you want to make a submission in respect of any one of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.

TRANSFERS OF DATA

Guernsey Cricket does not intend to transfer any personal data to authorised jurisdictions outside of the EU, or to unauthorised jurisdictions unless we are required to do so by Law.

LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

This notice does not cover any third-party websites reached via links on this website. You are advised to read the data collection statements on the other websites you visit.

RETENTION OF DATA

All data is retained securely and only used for the purposes set out within the data collection medium. Data is retained to comply with our statutory obligations and in accordance with the retention policy of Guernsey Cricket.

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

Section 67 of the Law provides for a right to complain to the ODPA. Sections 82 and 83 of the Law provides for rights of appeal. Where that complaint relates to the processing of personal data by Guernsey Cricket, specific procedures are in place to ensure appropriate review.

Complaints can be lodged via our Contact Us page or using the contact details listed above.

ANALYTICS

When you visit www.guernseycricket.com we use a third-party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out such things as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site in order to better understand how people use the website and to improve the site and the services offered. This information is only processed in a way that does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

If we do collect personal data through our website, how this is processed and under what lawful processing condition depends on which part of the website is used and is listed above.
